Grupa Azoty supports expansion of Royal Castle in Warsaw's art collection

Grupa Azoty is one of the donors who provided funding to grow the art collection held by the Royal Castle in Warsaw. Among the works purchased were paintings by Bernardo Bellotto aka Canaletto, and Marcello Bacciarelli. Grupa Azoty's donation also helped with the purchase of the painting César-René-Marie-François-Rodolphe de Vachon, Marquis de Belmont-Briançon, a battlefield beyond by Émile-Jean-Horace Vernet.

The presentation ceremony of the purchased works to the Royal Collection was held on December 15th at the Royal Castle. One of the highlights of the event was the hanging of Bellotto's painting on display. The ceremony was attended by Deputy Prime Minister, Minister of Culture and National Heritage prof. Piotr Gliński, and Deputy Prime Minister, Minister of State Assets Jacek Sasin. The event also included presentation of certificates of appreciation to Royal Castle Donors. The certificate awarded to Grupa Azoty was received on the company's behalf by Vice President of its Management Board Grzegorz Kądziałowski.

Supporting initiatives for the development of culture and the protection of national heritage is a vital element of Grupa Azoty's social contribution and sponsorship policy. We are proud to have contributed to building the Royal Castle in Warsaw's outstanding collection of European works of art,' said Tomasz Hinc, President of the Management Board of Grupa Azoty S.A.
