GROUNDS:

The resolution is formal and procedural in nature, in accordance with:

• Section 23.1 of the Rules of Procedure for the Company’s General Meeting, which reads as follows: “After the resolution concerning adoption of the agenda for the General Meeting has been passed, the Chairperson of the General Meeting shall order election of a Ballot Counting Committee composed of at least two persons . (...)”.

• Section 23.3 of the Rules of Procedure for the Company’s General Meeting, which reads as follows: “If a professional third party has been hired to provide technical and organisational support for the Meeting, the Meeting shall not elect a Ballot Counting Committee. The Ballot Counting Committee shall not be elected either when voting is carried out using a computer system. In such a case the tasks of the Ballot Counting Committee shall be performed by the person(s) responsible for conducting the vote using the computer system.”

- The legal basis for the resolution (Section 23.1 or Section 23.3 of the Rules of Procedure for the General Meeting) depends on whether Option 1 or Option 2 is selected for Section 1 of the resolution.
